Pumpkin Book Report Project

It's October and that means pumpkins are everywhere! Let's take this harvest theme and bring it into our class for some reading fun!

This month we are asking you to complete this really different book report together.

Select a book and read it together.

- Focus your discussion on the characters of the story.
- Pick one character and create them on a small pie sized pumpkin.
- (A small enough pumpkin that the student can carry it.)
- Decorate it, paint it, glue things to it, and just get creative! (Please don't carve it though.)
- Complete the attached book report.

Here are some samples:

Don't have a book? Not a problem. Visit the school library, your local library, or bookstore. (You can even ask me for a book if you promise to bring it back!)

Please send in your pumpkin, book report, and book by _____.

On _____ we will read many of these stories and talk about the characters the students have created.
